

Newman College in association with the Gerry Higgins Chair of Irish Studies and the Melbourne Irish Studies Seminar are pleased to present

Archbishop Goold and the Invention of Melbourne

The Oratory, Newman College, Swanston St
Thursday 8 November 2018 5:30 – 7:00pm

In celebration of the Australian Research Council's Discovery project, three scholars from the project's research team will present their recent discoveries.

St Patrick's Cathedral

Paola Colleoni (University of Melbourne)

A. C. Cooke, Exterior of St Patrick's Cathedral Melbourne, 1879, MDHC

Visualising Goold's Library

Huw Sandaver (Mannix Library)

Giovanni Lorenzo Berti, Opus De Theologicis Disciplinis, 1760, Mannix Library

Goold's Passion for Late Baroque Painting

Professor Jaynie Anderson (University of Melbourne)

Vincent Plassard, Christ on the road to Emmaus, mid 17th C, oil on canvas, CAM, Goold Collection

To RSVP to this event, visit www.trybooking.com/429177

For enquiries, email outreach@snac.unimelb.edu.au or telephone (03) 9342 1614

NEWMAN COLLEGE

Australian Government
Australian Research Council

UNIVERSITY OF DIVINITY

THE UNIVERSITY OF MELBOURNE